ORDER

Central and State Governments have enforced regulations in the form of Lock Down to contain the spread of Novel Corona Virus (Covid-19). Apart from the exempted categories in the orders read above, all other offices shall remain closed.

In Kerala, Cooperation department is actively involved in the disbursement of social security pensions and distribution essential commodities which are permissible activities during lock down period. Considering the inevitability of their service for the COVID-19 containment activities in the State, Government are pleased to permit Cooperation Department to function with minimal staff required for the above activity during the lock down period.

The Registrar of cooperative societies will ensure that only minimal staff required for the above activity are engaged.
