DEPARTMENT

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM

No. 4316/Pol. C2/82/GAD., dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 25th December 1983

Sub:- Vacancies reserved for ex-servicemen-Sponsoring of ex-servicemen of Central/ State Government Departments/Public Undertakings/Banks, etc. in respect of vacancies reserved for them-Instructions-Issued.

It has been decided by the Government of India that powers to sponsor candidates for vacancies reserved for ex-servicemen in Central Government Departments/Central Public Sector Undertakings and Nationalised Banks be transferred to Rajya Sainik Board/Zila Sainik Boards. The Director., Rajya Sainik Board has informed Government that the decision of the Government of India to vest with the Rajya Sainik Board/Zila Sainik Boards the exclusive authority for registering all ex-servicemen of State and for sponsoring them against reserved vacancies of the Central Government and Public Sector Undertakings has been implemented by the Director of Employment of the State from 1st April, 1982. It is therefore necessary to notify all concerned that the Sainik Board Organisation in the State has been duly authorised by the Government of India and the State Government to undertake this responsibility.

In the above circumstances the Central Government departments, public sector undertakings, nationalised banks etc., may henceforth forward all notification of vacancies reserved for ex-servicemen direct to the Director, Rajya Sainik Board, Vikas Bhavan, Trivandrum with copy to the concerned Zila Sainik Board of Trivandrum, Quilon, Kottayam, Alleppy, Ernakulam, Palghat, Trichur, Malappuram, Kozhikode and Cannanore respectively with immediate effect.

The District Collectors will bring the guidelines issued by the Government of India on the subject (as appended) to the notice of Central Government Departments/Public Sector Undertakings/Nationalised Banks, etc., covered by the sponsoring system in their district.
