Government have accepted the State Finance Commission recommendations referred to on the own resource mobilization of Local Governments.

Wherever auctions are held by LSGI there should be transparent procedures. The Panchayats and the Municipalities should disclose the various items which are given by auction, the likely time of auction and the amount received during the previous years, during Grama Sabha, Ward Sabha and Ward Committee meetings. There must be a compulsory display by all LSGIs indicating the various items, which are auctioned, the name of the successful bidder and the amount. And in every year before the end of December, all the Village Panchayats should inform the Deputy Director of Panchayats the auctions, which they have to conduct in the coming three months. This should be advertised in brief in at least three newspapers having largest circulation in the district as a general advertisement ^{and} in the website of LSG with all details (www.lsg.kerala.gov.in). As far as ULBs are concerned this advertisement could be given for a group of ULBs in every district. The joint Director of Municipalities could facilitate this.
